Yukito: As an apology for making a mistake, Jingi must clean up the channel.

Jingi: Damn! Why am I forced to go out of my way to pick up trash?

Yukito: It's natural because it was you who dirty it. Do not complain.

Jingi: No, I'm not the only one! The empty can from yesterday was mine, but the other junk isn't! Why is there so much garbage in the first place?

Yukito: Because it's a channel, various things flow in from other places. Hey, I'll help you too!

Jingi: How troublesome! Can you do it now?

Yukito: How fast are you? How impatient can you be?

Jingi: For this kind of thing... it's better to use the proper technique and clean it up quickly. Here you have. It's "Mizukuri"!

Yukito: Yes... but if something strange happens again...

Jingi: Don't say that, it's all good, don't ruin it! This is also training!

Yukito: I wonder if it will be alright...? So please follow me correctly this time. Well... "Calm is the water that nourishes all creation..." Wow, the water washed away the garbage and gathered it in one place! Jingi, pick up the garbage that has accumulated there. Jingi...

What? Jingi?

Jingi: Well then, I'll leave the rest to you. Excuse me in advance! Yay! I can drink sake now~!

Yukito: Huh?! No, Jingi?! Hey, he's already very far...! He's running away too fast! Wait...
Jingiiiiii! Never trust this person... Once again, I was determined to do so...
