

"AYAKA" (AUDIO DRAMA 09)

TRANSLATION: NARU-KUN / K-PROJECT WORLD

Yukito: Alright, let's move! Come on! Hey, can we go to Shinoshima by train?

Yako: The teacher moves using the Shukuchi technique, but... because we don't have enough training...

Yukito: I was wondering if we should go by boat or something... Is this something that can move freely?

Yako: Beyond the island of Yonnoshima there is a hidden kingdom where ordinary people cannot enter. The means of transportation to get to that place is in charge of the Kasen Shrine.

Chatarou: In other words, now that the teacher is gone, we are the ones in charge!

Yako: It seems that, in the old days, as Yukito-kun said, they used a ferry... Gliding through the natural barrier in a vehicle equipped with a life preserver. The basic principle of that. Also, by the sea train route. It also has the magical meaning of connecting seven islands like a dragon's spine.

Ibara: Come on, because the reasoning is good.

Chatarou: Hey, don't cut suddenly, on one side.

Ibara: It's time to go.

Chatarou: That's right!

Yukito: Ichijou-san-san... Ibuki-san and the others must be worried, I understand. Let's hurry.

Chatarou: Ah... Oh, what's wrong? Is it a worried face?

Yako: I think we should hurry too. The teacher is...

Chatarou: Well, I'm worried too, go ahead everyone!

Yukito: Uh, somehow... isn't the train fast?

Chatarou: It's funny, it shouldn't go that fast.

Ibara: The power of the life line is getting stronger.

Yako: Ah... Maybe due to the influence of Yukito-kun's power...

Yukito: Eh... is it my fault?!

Chatarou: Haha, that's great, it's a limited espresso.

Yako: We'll get there soon!

Ibara: Yanagi Yukito... Well done.

Yukito: Ah, thank you...
