

MINI EPISODES: FUSHIMI'S HOME COOKING

TRANSLATION: NARU-KUN / K-PROJECT WORLD

Scepter 4's dorm recommended eating in the attached coffee shop in the morning and evening, except for lunch. There is a small room in each man's dormitory and women's dormitory, but there is a coffee shop equipped with large-scale professional kitchen equipment, from 7:00 to 9:00 on weekdays in the morning and in the evening they can eat from 18:00 to 20:00.

Although help was included and the two are appropriate, the main part was cut into two twin parts. The place was broadly decided as the boys' bedroom and the girls' bedroom, but they flexibly complemented each other.

The coffee shop has a good reputation among members because it has a rich repertoire of dishes at a reasonable price.

However, due to unhappiness in the caretakers' hometown, they both had to be out of the dorm for about two weeks. Of course, they should have a substitute, but due to the sudden situation and the short period, it is difficult to find a substitute. Thus, the people in the bedroom spoke, and finally Reisi Munakata exercised his discretion, and the members took turns standing in the kitchen for two weeks. Given the situation, women will also use the coffee shop in the men's dorm during this period to unify the operation.

Who will be in charge of cooking and when will be decided by a draw, taking into account each shift.

The budget will be paid daily for the sum of the men's bedroom and the women's bedroom.

The last person to eat should never complain.

Such an arrangement was made. What was unfortunate for the members was that this period was the same as Kamo's business trip, which was previously devoted to Japanese food. He himself was disappointed that he couldn't be there.

It was undeniable that the force was drastically reduced, but the members took turns cooking themselves while having fun. The women showed reasonable strength in displaying the delicious stew and meaty potatoes, but surprisingly the men in the task force performed well.

Akiyama was surprised by the high standard of roast beef, fried rice with lettuce, and Zasai soup. When he was in high school, he had a part-time job at a Chinese restaurant in town. With a modest narrative, he spoke of that time with a nostalgic feeling and elevated his value.

Also, Enomoto made a strange curry with a mystery dressing based on the blue roux and was noticed by everyone, but it was surprisingly delicious with an ethnic flavor. It appears that he recently organized and reproduced the exclusive menu of a popular curry shop in his favorite city.

On the contrary, when everyone started waiting who would cook what kind of food, "Fushimi-san, what are you cooking?"

Domyoji approached Fushimi with a seriously uneasy face. Fushimi was on duty the day before the last day.

"Ah?"

When Fushimi frowns,

"Everyone tells me that Fushimi-san would insist that the protein bar and nutritional jelly that he always replenishes be a plate."

Fushimi looked around. Hidaka and his friends looked away hastily. Apparently, when there was rumor about such a thing behind the scenes, it seems that Domyoji who was worried rushed in honestly. After thinking about Fushimi for a while,

"That is correct. That is not bad either."

He finally laughed. Domyoji was holding his head as if he was desperate.

And the day came when Fushimi took over cooking and everyone was surprised.

"Fushimi-san, this?"

Hidaka pointed to the plate placed on the table in front of him. There was pasta and soup that seemed to be deliciously steaming.

"Well, eat it."

Fushimi, who twirled his arms, urged him on as he wiped his hands with a dish towel. The members were even more surprised by the food they were served.

"This pasta is basically Bolognese, but the protein bar is used as an accent!"

"The soup is seasoned with consommé, but the base is a nutritious drink? The sweetness of the broth is so delicious! Also, the ingredients are beef and this texture... ah, fries?"

There are several comments. It is quite positive.

"A world of cutting-edge, first-rate junk cuisine like Fushimi-san!"

Enomoto was screaming like a cooking cartoon.

Domyoji...

"Hm."

He talks and eats. Hidaka...

"Fushimi-san. Did you cook?"

When he looked at Fushimi because he was impressed,

"Nowadays, if you look at the video site, can you find out how to cook as much as you want?"

Fushimi shrugged as if nothing had happened. He didn't say. When he was in Homura, he was able to make some pasta with the help of Kusanagi standing in the kitchen of the bar.

Awashima, who had finished eating pasta and soup, said as she wiped her mouth with a napkin.

"You did, Fushimi. You really used your own ingredients and fixed it."

Smile,

"On the last day, I will do my best to express myself!"

They were all terrified. By the way, they forgot the last manager.

Seri Awashima, who loves Anko, was in charge of the last day. And, as expected, she used the anko very well and served the full plate with it.

The food under the anko was delicious.
